How The Enemy Lies

This is how the enemy lies. This Christian author who tries to promote Christianity into Hinduism states in his book: "The Christian term "Satan" and the Islamic term "Shaitan" both are from the Sanskrit term Sat-na which means non-truth, falsehood."

He told you half a truth those titles are from the Sanskrit Sat-na. But he also then lies with the claim of what Sat-na means in Sanskrit. Sat-na in Sanskrit is fully spelled with the Anusvara on the end as Sat-Nam. This Sat-Nam is the highest name of God in Sanskrit. In Sikhism which was created from Hinduism and by a Hindu Guru. Sat-nam is the highest name of God and it means: "The name of God which means absolute Truth." Sat-Nam's bija mantra the mantra that contains the whole energy of this title in Kundalini Yoga is SATANAMA. Which is the highest mantra in Kundalini Yoga which is the original and oldest form of Yoga. Sat, Satanama are mantras to open the crown chakra and third eye in Kundalini Yoga and always have been. Which leads one to truth.

For this Sat-na to be a negation of truth it would have to be in Sanskrit spelled A-Sat. As example Nama means name in Sanskrit and A-Nama, means without name. etc

These enemy losers will tell any dishonest claim even when its obvious they are lying. Just to keep the Jewish thought form of Christianity going. As the Jewish spell of the Bible states it will send delusions and lies to people to then destroy them.

The A in Ancient Greek follows the same pattern with the Sanskrit as it's rooted in Sanskrit. So A-Sat-nam would mean "That which is devoid of Truth". It's called A of removal which means the "A that removes (what the rest of the word means)", and it's put on the beginning of a word to make it mean the opposite of it's original meaning.

However when you lie to people like the Christian retards attempt, they prey on lack of knowledge.

A-SAT would mean lack of Truth, for example. SAT would mean Truth, ASAT would mean untruthful, for example. A devoids words of their meaning.

There is a special place reserved in "Hell" for the Christards who produce such disinfo. The "Hell" they invented will be invented so they can sit in there eternally in judgement for their invented "Sins".

Sat Nam is a shorting of Sata Nama which pays homage to the Nama [Name] of Sata which Sata fully written in Sanskrit has the Anusvara of the end the N sound making it Satan. This in Sanskrit fully expresses the literal meaning of this term vibrationally. Sanskrit is the language of the Gods. Its not choosing and picking names its understanding that the word Satan is literally the eternal vibrational frequency which this eternal concept exist within. Sanskrit means Perfect Creation. Satan in Sanskrit is the highest name of God its the name of the soul itself, literally.

This is true I noticed with Kylee Der Rainbow Christ, Hunt. He admitted on his radio show we are actually correct in our doctrine but he is triggered by the name Satan and then tries to sidetrack off into some nonsense about Lavey and tries to connect us to Lavey. This is just cognitive dissonance on his part and its obvious. I guess he never considered how being raised catholic is still effecting his pointy head. Rentagoy is just recreating Christianity in their own preferable way if you observe them. I guess the Hindus and Yezidis who worship Satan as the highest God are posers because Lavey didn't create them in 1969.

This is why its important to proceed as we do in the JOS, it gives people a psychic detoxification. Otherwise they just end up unconsciously recreating Christianity in away that is preferable to their own individual ego mind even with an Odin Christ literally just look at Serrano. And the Jewish mess just keeps on going. You end up like spockrets and spockrets probably cries every night over being him. No one wants to be sprockrets.

It doesn't matter what the jews mean on the term, it's negative, reversed and repulsive, to them. Language implies how one sees something. We don't see it or approach the term from the hebrew side. But from the Sanskrit and ancient tongue. What we believe is from the Sanskrit, not from the hebrew.

We don't really care about them anymore than they wage a war on the Ancient Pagan culture, and attack it for centuries. By their own admission. So we want to stop this permanently.

I wonder why it's so hard and cheesy for people to understand this. It's almost as if they WISH we were a stupid jewish cult, so that they have something to say against us...And when they don't have something they throw a tantrum...Lol"
